

Everyone has a right to understand and be understood.

RIO is a new state-funded program of Oregon Worker Relief that compensates interpreters of Indigenous languages or lesser diffusion languages, such as Chuj, K'iche', Q'anjob'al, Mam, Akateko, Ixil, Mixteco, Zapoteco, Yucateco, Purépecha, Q'eqchi', and more.

Request Indigenous language interpretation: www.WorkerRelief.org/RIO
Interpreters: Learn more & apply! 1-888-274-7292 | info@WorkerRelief.org

OREGON
WORKER RELIEF

RIO
Indigenous Languages Fund

RIO is NOT intended to replace existing funds dedicated to meet legal requirements to provide interpretation and language access, which include Title VI of the Civil Rights Act and Executive Order 13166.